name

Lesson 12 Quiz

1 ἀπό ablative:	1. Translate the following into English:
ablative:  4 ἐν locative:  5 παρά locative, ablative or accusative:  6 Prepositions and cases - which one gives meaning to the other?  7 Which of the cases is almost never used with a preposition?  8 What two functions do prepositions carry out in compound verbs?  9 What happens when a preposition that ends in a vowel is combined with a verb that begins with a vowel?  10 When compound verbs receive an augment (as in the imperfect tense), what happens to the final vowel of the preposition?  11 What do you get when you combine παρά and ἔχω (cf #9 above)?  12 If the PRESENT of the word "receive" is παραλαμβάνω, what would the	1	ἀπό	ablative:
10   locative:	2	είς	accusative:
locative, ablative or accusative:  6 Prepositions and cases - which one gives meaning to the other?  7 Which of the cases is almost never used with a preposition?  8 What two functions do prepositions carry out in compound verbs?  9 What happens when a preposition that ends in a vowel is combined with a verb that begins with a vowel?  10 When compound verbs receive an augment (as in the imperfect tense), what happens to the final vowel of the preposition?  11 What do you get when you combine παρά and ἔχω (cf #9 above)?	3	ἐκ	ablative:
6 Prepositions and cases - which one gives meaning to the other?  7 Which of the cases is almost never used with a preposition?  8 What two functions do prepositions carry out in compound verbs?  9 What happens when a preposition that ends in a vowel is combined with a verb that begins with a vowel?  10 When compound verbs receive an augment (as in the imperfect tense), what happens to the final vowel of the preposition?  11 What do you get when you combine παρά and ἔχω (cf #9 above)?  12 If the PRESENT of the word "receive" is παραλαμβάνω, what would the	4	ἐν	locative:
7 Which of the cases is almost never used with a preposition?  8 What two functions do prepositions carry out in compound verbs?  9 What happens when a preposition that ends in a vowel is combined with a verb that begins with a vowel?  10 When compound verbs receive an augment (as in the imperfect tense), what happens to the final vowel of the preposition?  11 What do you get when you combine παρά and ἔχω (cf #9 above)?  12 If the PRESENT of the word "receive" is παραλαμβάνω, what would the	5	παρά	locative, ablative or accusative:
8 What two functions do prepositions carry out in compound verbs?  9 What happens when a preposition that ends in a vowel is combined with a verb that begins with a vowel?  10 When compound verbs receive an augment (as in the imperfect tense), what happens to the final vowel of the preposition?  11 What do you get when you combine παρά and ἔχω (cf #9 above)?  12 If the PRESENT of the word "receive" is παραλαμβάνω, what would the	6	Prepositions and cases - which one gives meaning to the other?
9 What happens when a preposition that ends in a vowel is combined with a verb that begins with a vowel?  10 When compound verbs receive an augment (as in the imperfect tense), what happens to the final vowel of the preposition?  11 What do you get when you combine παρά and ἔχω (cf #9 above)?  12 If the PRESENT of the word "receive" is παραλαμβάνω, what would the	7	Which of the cases is almost never used with a preposition?
verb that begins with a vowel?  10 When compound verbs receive an augment (as in the imperfect tense), what happens to the final vowel of the preposition?  11 What do you get when you combine παρά and ἔχω (cf #9 above)?  12 If the PRESENT of the word "receive" is παραλαμβάνω, what would the	8	What two functions do prepositions carry out in compound verbs?
happens to the final vowel of the preposition?   11 What do you get when you combine $\pi$ αρά and ἔχω (cf #9 above)?   12 If the PRESENT of the word "receive" is $\pi$ αραλαμβάνω, what would the	9
12 If the PRESENT of the word "receive" is παραλαμβάνω, what would the	10
	11	What do you get when you combine $\pi\alpha\rho\dot{\alpha}$ and $\xi\chi\omega$ (cf #9 above)?		